"I want to be independent and do things for myself. I'm happy at HCO's house and am never scared at night."

I really like the carers - they are always very helpful and do things for me if I can't.

I miss my Mum and my dog Wilfy a bit, but have never wanted to come home.

I love being there for short stays.

"...it was a very easy choice for me when deciding on a short-term accommodation facility to begin preparing for independent living. HCO's house is a secure, happy haven and my daughter loves being there, which has made the beginning of this very hard next stage of her life so much easier for me."

I have total trust in the place, knowing she is well cared for and safe, which is just so important."
